The following is a summary of programs offered to TUMI students through our accredited partners. For more information, visit www.tumi.org/accreditedpartners.

LANCASTER BIBLE COLLEGE YOUR JOURNEY. OUR FOCUS.

Lancaster Bible College has approved the ability for TUMI students to transfer completed TUMI modules for credit into Degree

Completion. Each of the 16 modules from TUMI is worth 1.7 credits, for a potential total of 27.2 transfer credits. That's almost a year's worth of traditional college!

Fuller Theological Seminary is offering students who complete the TUMI Capstone Curriculum the opportunity to apply for Special Student Status for a masters program at Fuller.

City Vision University has a special partnership with TUMI to provide accredited Bachelor's in Addiction Studies, Urban Missions, or Nonprofit

Management degrees. City Vision College is accredited by the Distance Education Accrediting Commission.

Pillar College welcomes TUMI students and offers the opportunity for students from The Urban Ministry Institute to transfer credit to Pillar. Each module is worth 1.5 credits at Pillar, with a total of 24 credits potentially transferred into Pillar College.

Cairn University will provide qualified TUMI students with an organization tuition discount for a Degree Completion Program, and various Masters programs, several of which have online options available.

International Christian College & Seminary

International Christian College and Seminary is offering degree credit to TUMI students who transfer completed TUMI modules. Each of the 16 modules from TUMI is worth

2 credits, for a potential total of 32 transfer credits. That's almost a year's worth of traditional college. All enrolling students will also have access to scholarships. Inmates Welcome.
